LATEST NEWS ABOUT WAR AND MOBILIZATION

Following is a summary of the army and war news as revealed by the latest dispatches:

Mexican government revives provision of the constitution under which revolutionists may be put to death without the formality of a trial.

Extreme penalty may be executed upon a person who throws a stone at a train.

Person making an arrest authorized to sit in judgment and act as executioner.

In its application the law will fit the foreigner as well as the rebel, and no mercy will be shown in either case.

Particular reference is made to soldiers of fortune from the United States.

Law is to be enforced for six months, by which time the government hopes to have annihilated the insurgents.

Finance Minister Limantour declares that intervention by the United States would mean war.

Criticism of the action of President Taft in sending troops to the border in London and Berlin.

British newspapers revive Champ Clark's reference to the annexation of Canada and indulge in sarcastic comment.

Insurgents in Lower California ordered to stop advance until they learn more about the intentions of the United States.

Discovery that state militia cannot be called into service under present conditions.

Berlin agitator declares that in ten years, or even five, Mexico will have been "Cubanized into a docile Yankee satrapy."

Wounded survivor of the battle of Casas Grandes gives further account of the fight which resulted in the death of sixteen Americans who had joined the insurgent army.

Madero, styling himself provisional president of Mexico, sends note to the powers guaranteeing persons and property of foreigners in the Mexican republic.

Arrival of the Fifteenth Infantry at San Antonio to take part in the "maneuvers."

RANCHERS HAD NO TITLE TO GROUND

Although he has lived for more than thirty years on a ranch near Cherry Creek, Patrick H. Greene was compelled to apply for a homestead entry in the clerk's office last Thursday to agricultural land which he and his father have tilled since the early days of White Pine county.

The Greene family only had a squatter's right to the ground. Learning that his title was defective, Greene took the necessary steps to perfect his rights. The ranch was located on unsurveyed government land. A survey of the land in question was completed a year ago.

John Cordano, who took up the Kelly ranch about three miles north of Greene's siding fifteen years ago, went through a like procedure in order to obtain a valid title to his farming land.

Mrs. M. Greene and son, Patrick, and John Cordano, left this morning for their respective homes, but expect to return to the county seat in three weeks to close up the necessary details in connection with their homestead entries—Ely Expressor.

FIFTEEN MEN OF THE TWENTY-FOUR SAID GUILTY

Attorney Sam Platt departed for Reno last evening, where he was called in conference upon a federal case that is to be transferred to Washington for trial. At the depot before leaving for Reno he was asked regarding the matter of the Patrick case, and as his opinion of the article, which appeared in the evening paper, wherein it was stated "although a majority of the jurors were in favor of acquittal, Mr. Platt announces that he will continue the fight. Twice the juries have failed to convict and the last time the instructions of the judge pointed toward an acquittal."

"I have nothing to say," he replied, "except that fifteen reputable men out of twenty-four pronounced Patrick guilty. I see no justification for dismissing the proceedings."—Carson News.

SAM ROBINSON HAS RESIGNED POSITION

For years "but few deaths and no resignations" has been the rule about the V. T. railway shops in this city. But like all other rules there are exceptions, and the exception in this instance is Sam Robinson, whose resignation was tendered several days ago, and took effect yesterday evening.

Mr. Robinson has had general supervision of the roundhouse for nearly twenty years, and in all that time has been a general favorite with the boys, and it may truly be said, has not made an enemy; on the contrary, his friends are numbered by the score. He led a quiet and secluded life, worked steadily and saved his money, consequently is now on easy street, and intends to enjoy the rest of his days in retirement.

Mr. Robinson came in the lime-light several years ago when he was foreman of the celebrated grand jury which indicted T. B. Riekey and the directors of the defunct State Bank and Trust company.

Mr. Robinson will leave shortly for his old home in Baltimore, and the boys are planning to have the Nevada State band at the depot to give him a proper send-off, a thing that has not been done since Nat Curry left the shops here some thirty years ago, and who is now a millionaire in Canada.—Carson News.

AUSTRALIAN COPPER OUTPUT FOR JANUARY

The combined output of the five largest copper mines in Australia during January is reported as 5,871,000 pounds of copper, an increase of approximately 1,750,000 pounds over that of the corresponding month in 1910, at which time two of these mines, Mount Elliott and Great Fitzroy, were not producing.

Of this output, Mount Morgan produced 1,438,080 pounds; Mount Lyell, 1,413,440 pounds; Mount Elliott, 1,308,120 pounds; Great Fitzroy, 297,920 pounds, and Great Cobar, 1,413,440 pounds.
